

Dear NBCC Colleagues:

The Nativity Model Middle School in Omaha, NE has a job opening for principal. See details below.

Position: Principal

School: Jesuit Middle School of Omaha

JESUIT MIDDLE SCHOOL <<http://www.jesuitmso.org/JesuitMiddle/index.html>> of Omaha (JMSO), a Jesuit sponsored Catholic Nativity middle school in the North Omaha neighborhood, is seeking a principal to begin on or before July 1, 2011.

Currently 65 boys are enrolled in grades 4 - 8. As the chief administrative officer of JMSO, the Principal reports to the President. The Principal is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the academic, religious and extracurricular life of the School as well as care for the students, faculty, staff and volunteers.

Candidates must possess a Masters in Education or a BA in Education with a Masters in a related field and hold a current teaching certificate/license. Applicants must be persons of Faith and have at least two years of experience in a diverse and multicultural environment. The ideal candidate is familiar with the Nativity Miguel model of schools and has experience working with an African-American school community.

Fr. Tom Neitzke, SJ
Creighton University
Jesuit Community
2500 California Plaza
Omaha, NE 68178
twneitzke@mac.com