Explore treasures in the archdiocese with our bucket list

By Chicago Catholic

The Archdiocese of Chicago abounds with spiritual riches. Within Cook and Lake counties, there are shrines, chapels, basilicas and grottoes. There are unique devotions to various saints, along with outdoor processions in honor of Jesus and his mother.

People could live their whole lives in the archdiocese and experience only a few of these gems. To help people find more opportunities, Chicago Catholic created a Catholic bucket list of places and events they can check out. Note: This is not an all-encompassing list of our favorite events or places in the archdiocese.

- Visit or attend Mass at Holy Name Cathedral, 735 N. State St., the mother church of the archdiocese.

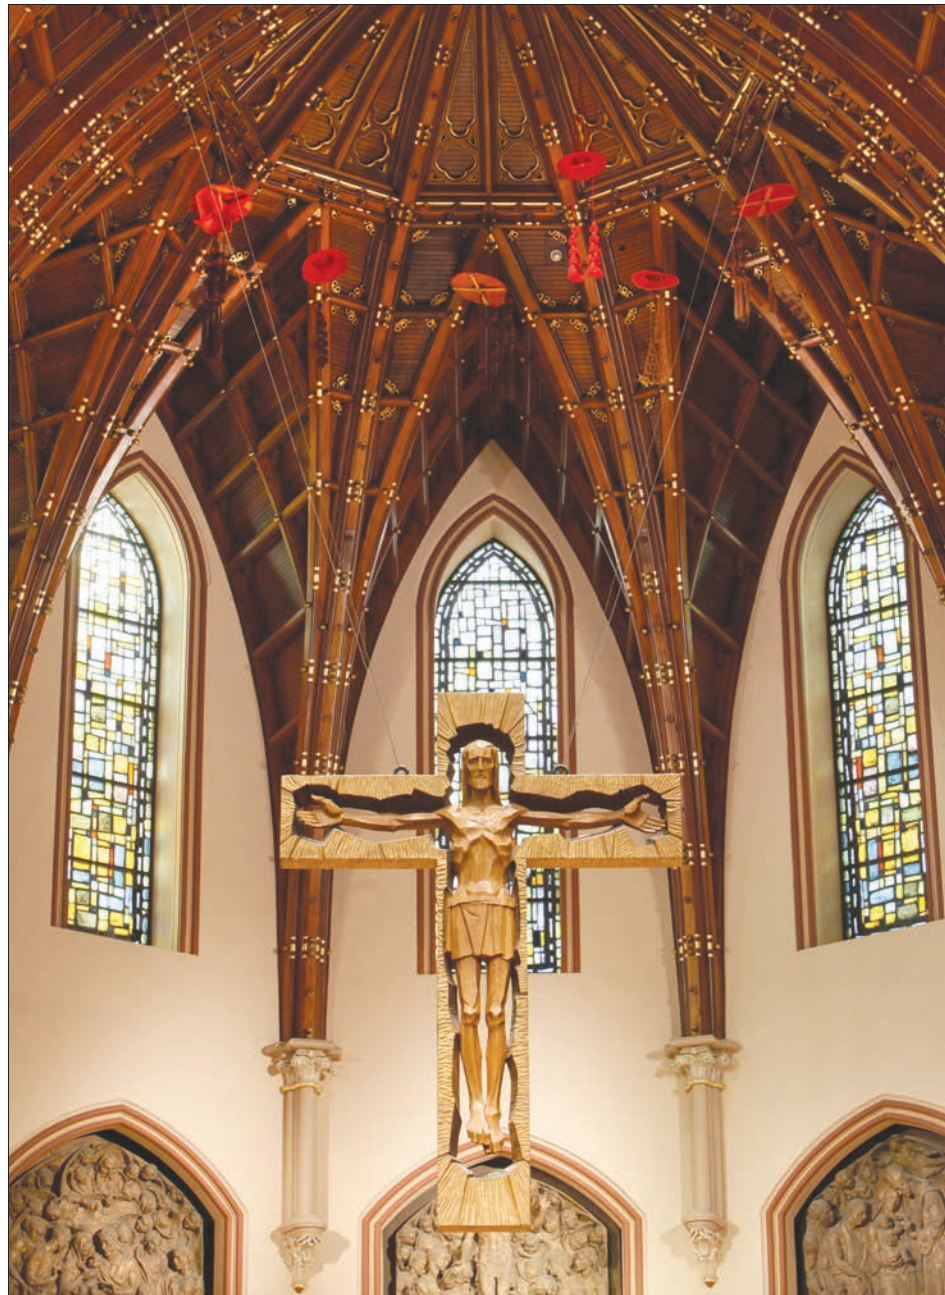

Be sure to look up at the ceiling to see the thousands of hand-carved wood pieces covering the 19th-century ceiling in a gingerbread style.

Also look up in the sanctuary to see the red hats hanging from the ceiling. Those are “galeros,” a traditional hat of a cardinal that is raised to the ceiling of his cathedral upon his death. The hat hangs until it turns into dust, a reminder that all earthly glory is passing.

- Visit the Healing Garden of the Archdiocese of Chicago, just west of Holy Family Church, 1080 W. Roosevelt Road.

Established in 2011 with the blessing of Cardinal George, the garden was the brainchild of sex-abuse survivor Michael Hoffman. It is a permanent testimony not only to the clergy sex abuse that happened, but also to the efforts at reconciliation between victim-survivors and the church.

- Participate in the Polish pilgrimage from Chicago (usually starting at Immaculate Conception Church) to Merrillville, Indiana, in honor of Mary, held the second weekend of August.

This 33-mile walking pilgrimage is a local version of a traditional pilgrimage in Poland that takes place around the feast of the Assumption. salvatorianie.us/pilgrimages

- Visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, 1170 N. River Road, Des Plaines.

If you can, go during the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe celebration Dec. 11-12.

The weekend before the feast day features a pilgrimage of hundreds of riders on horseback, and another of trucks. Pilgrims traditionally bring roses for Mary.

The shrine is recognized by the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico as a place that pilgrims can fulfill “mandas,” or promises made to Mary, if they cannot travel to Mexico. solg.org

- Attend an outdoor Via Crucis (Way of the Cross) on Good Friday. Check local parishes for one near you. One of the largest processions takes place in Pilsen.

- Have your pet blessed for the feast of St. Francis, Oct. 4. Dozens of parishes throughout the archdiocese hold blessings on or around the feast day.

- Visit all three basilicas in the archdiocese: St. Hyacinth, 3636 W. Wolfram St. (sthyacinthbasilica.org); Our Lady of Sorrows, 3111 W. Jackson Blvd. (olscatholic.com); Queen of All Saints, 6280 N. Sauganash Ave (qasparish.org).

- Participate in an outdoor religious procession. Many parishes hold processions around the feast days of saints to whom their community has a particular devotion and around the eucharistic feast of Corpus Christi. Check local parishes for one near you.

- Venerate a saint's relic. Some parishes offer veneration of a saint's relic on the saint's feast day, or have veneration of relics that are visiting.

- Visit the National Shrine of St. Francis Xavier Cabrini, located across from the Lincoln Park Zoo at 2520 N. Lakeview Ave.

Mother Cabrini lived and worked in Chicago and died on the site. The shrine has a small but unique museum that includes a recreation of the room where she died. cabinationalshrine.org

- Visit St. Martha Parish/Shrine of All Saints, 8523 Georgiana Ave., Morton Grove. The sanctuary houses relics of more than 1,600 saints and soon-to-be saints, from the apostles to Sts. Teresa of Kolkata, John Paul II and one of the church's newest saints, Carlo Acutis. shrineofallsaints.org

- Attend the solemn novena to St. Clare Aug. 2-10, at the Poor Clare Monastery, 12210 S. Will-Cook Road, Palos Park; or the feast day Mass Aug. 11. Call 708-361-1810 for details.

- Visit St. Benedict the African Church, 340 W. 66th St., to view the unique architecture, which was designed to resemble an African hut.

The artwork in the church celebrates African American Catholics.

This is one of several archdiocesan churches that has been featured in Open House Chicago, a free public architecture festival hosted by the Chicago Architecture Center. benedicttheafrican.org

- Attend the annual Sunrise Prayer Service for Nonviolence and Peace sponsored each August by the Chicago Black Deacons at Oakwood Beach. deacons.archchicago.org/current-events/sunrise-mass

- Attend the annual Family Fest at Misericordia Home, 6300 N. Ridge Road.

This campus-wide festival features music, food, games and other entertainment.

If you can't make the festival, stop by The Greenhouse Inn for lunch. Residents of Misericordia help serve the food and wait on customers in this restaurant located on Misericordia's campus. You can also take home some sweets from Misericordia's Hearts and Flours Bakery. misericordia.com

- Join in the weekly rosary walk at St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish, 218 W. Alexander St., in Chinatown, on Monday afternoons, rain or shine. Contact the parish for times. stmotherteresaparish.org

- Pray the outdoor stations of the cross at Marytown, 1600 W. Park Ave., Libertyville.

Staffed by the Conventual Franciscans, Marytown is home to the National Shrine of St. Maximilian Kolbe, with artifacts of the saint and the monstrance created for the 1926 Eucharistic Congress held in the
